

A SNAPSHOT OF HWC PROGRAMS

The Hawai'i Wildlife Center is the only organization in Hawai'i that provides a system of wildlife response, training, research and disaster preparedness that benefits the entire state, and beyond.

National and International

Research assistance:

- Endangered Seabird Genetics (Smithsonian)
- Biomonitoring of Environmental Contaminants (National Institute of Standards and Technology)

National Partnerships include:

- National Wildlife Federation
- Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine
- Focus Wildlife International (Wildlife Emergency Response)

Assistance with Endangered Species Recovery

Nene Translocation Project

Trainings Provided:

- Avian Botulism Response
- Wildlife Response Protocol

Care of Kaua'i wildlife

Consultations:

- Wildlife Response (Save our Shearwaters)
- Kilauea Point National Wildlife Refuge

Conservation Partnerships:

- USFWS
- National Park Service
- DLNR/DOFAW
- USGS
- Honolulu Zoo

Professional assistance to local rehabbers

Education and outreach:

- Science Alive! at Bishop Museum
- Provide information packets to O'ahu schools

Assistance to general public with wildlife calls

Care of O'ahu wildlife

Trainings Provided:

- Avian Botulism Response
- Wildlife Oil Spill Preparedness and Response

Research assistance:

- Plastics in seabirds (HPU)
- Rodenticide toxicology (USFWS)

Partnerships:

- Maui Bird Conservation Center
- Haleakala National Park
- Save our Seabirds Program
- Maui DOFAW

Assistance to general public with wildlife calls

Training Provided:

- Avian Botulism Response

Care of Maui Wildlife

Northwestern Hawaiian Islands and the Pacific Islands

Consultations:

- Care of White Terns (Midway)
- Seabird Rehabilitation (Saipan)
- Migratory Bird Husbandry (Palmyra)

Training Provided:

- Wildlife Rehabilitation (American Samoa)
- Oil Spill Response (Midway, Guam, CNMI)
- Avian Botulism Response (Midway)

Relief Assistance:

- Supplies prepared for and shipped to Rota (CNMI) in response to seabird dieoff

Training Provided:

- Avian Botulism Response

Training Provided:

- Seabird Response Protocols

Conservation Partnerships:

- Keauhou Bird Conservation Center
- National Park Service
- USGS

Community Events:

- KKCC Earth Day
- North Kohala Kamehameha Day Celebration
- Palila Palooza at 'Imiloa Astronomy Center

Mitigation Services for Windfarms

Training Provided:

- Avian Botulism Response

Care of Hawai'i Island wildlife

Assistance to general public with wildlife calls

Education Partnerships:

- UH Hilo
- Kohala Middle School
- Kohala High School
- Holualoa Elementary